Descriptor

Parents are led through a discussion of how ADHD presents itself from early elementary school through to adulthood. Parents are shown what ADHD looks like at home and how it may look different at school. Parents are given strategies on how to manage ADHD at home and how to support teachers in the classroom. As a parent of a severe ADHD child, I will speak to topics like: Time Blindness, Poor Social Skills, Emotional Outbursts, Homework Issues, Poor Problem Solving/Time Management, Drug Use and Medications.

About the Presenter

Les Redick For over 20 years Les has taught ADHD and LD students from grades 7 through 12. In addition to his professional experience, he has personal experience living with ADHD himself and raising a son with ADHD. This combination of professional and personal experience has given Les an excellent perspective on ADHD, executive functioning issues and motivation. In 2014, he presented at the LDA National Conference in Anaheim, CA. Currently, Les is taking his MEd. in ADHD Resiliency through the University of Calgary and he currently works at Foothills Academy teaching junior and senior high math.
